State Music Clubs to Open
Convention With a Concert

Federation to Hold Three Day Session at Hotel Pennsylvania Beginning To-morrow Morning—
Noted Artists to Be Among the Soloists.

MUSIC will play a prominent part in the week's club program, which will include interesting outdoor events of a patriotic and charitable character.

At the Hotel Pennsylvania to-morrow the second annual convention of the State Federation of Music Clubs will begin, and continue for three days, with music and the allied arts furnishing not only programs of unusual interest but subjects of discussion as well. Although still in its infancy the State Federation of Music Clubs, Inc., includes thirty music clubs in different parts of the State, and some of the larger cities like Albany, Rochester and Watertown will be represented when the president, Mme. Edna Marione, calls the meeting to order.

Well known clubs also will take part to-morrow evening in the annual fete champetre, to be given on the roof of the Hotel Astor under the auspices of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs, and on Saturday many prominent women of clubs will journey to Great Neck, L. I., to take part in the dedication of the Roosevelt Memorial.

Another event of special interest on Saturday will be the linen shower and lawn fete in aid of Seton Hospital. It will be held on the hospital grounds, Spuyten Duyvil and 231st street, and the women who are working for its success hope to realize enough from their efforts to complete the payment for an X-ray machine.

A luncheon was given for the officers and directors of the club by Miss Helen Barry at her home on Nassau Boulevard, Long Island, on May 23. Following luncheon, plans were discussed for the activities of the club next season.

Mrs. Timothy Martin O'Connor's Entree-Nous Dancing Club will have its annual outing on Saturday at Gramatan Hotel, Bronxville. This will close the club's activities for the season. Arrangements already have been made for meetings of the club next winter at the Hotel Plaza, where they will be held on the first Friday of each month, beginning on November 8. Mrs. O'Connor will sail for Europe on July 15.

At the luncheon which follows the concert there will be an American composers' table with Mrs. Helen Irvine as hostess, and an artists' table over which Mrs. Clara Novello Davies will preside. The Juniors will have a table of their own. The speakers and guests of honor will include Judge Charles I. Guy, Mary Shaw, Mrs. Frances Elliot Clarke, Bartlett E. James of Johns Hopkins, Boston, and Mrs. William A. Sikes, Mr. Tremaine and Ann Bagley Stephens.

The New York Welsh Glee Clubs will be the attraction at the federation's final concert on Wednesday evening. Samuel Roberts, the Welsh tenor, will assist, and Sue Harvard of the Metropolitan Opera Company and Miss Carolyn Beebe, the pianist, will be the other solo artists.

Lady's week-end events of the three days convention, the first concert will be open to the public and information regarding it may be had from Sada Cowen, 68 Central Park West, or Mrs. George Ellis, 242 Central Park West. The sessions on Wednesday will be free and practical points in the progress of music will be discussed by musical educators and others.

The annual fete champetre of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs will have a delicious luncheon at the Hotel Astor, which will represent a garden for the occasion. Mrs. Richard M. Chapman will head the receiving party, the president of the federation, and the ex-presidents and other officers of the federation.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble McConnell will give a theater party followed by a supper and dance to-morrow evening for Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel D. Boone, who recently returned from Shanghai, China, where they were married last September. Mr. and Mrs. Boone are the guests of her mother, Mrs. Owen J. McWilliam, 316 West Seventy-ninth street.
